PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

HE IS GIVING YOU HIS HEART. HIS SPIRIT.

Lord, thank You for giving me Your heart and Your Spirit.

Create in me a clean heart, O God.
Renew a right spirit within me.

A CLEAN HEART TONIGHT

Some evenings you finish the day feeling not quite clean inside, wishing you could start over. Nothing dramatic happened, but you're aware that not everything came from a good place, and it sits with you.

Psalm 51 is David's prayer after his worst failure, and at its centre is a simple request: "Create in me a clean heart, O God. Renew a right spirit within me." He doesn't ask God to tidy up the old heart. He asks God to create, the same word Genesis uses for God's first work of making. Cleansing is God's work, and He is glad to do it.

Tonight, pray that verse slowly, as your own words. Then name one thing you'd like God to make new in you, and leave it with Him. Sleep knowing that a clean heart is His gift, not your achievement.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I don't feel clean tonight, and I can't scrub it out myself. Create a clean heart in me while I sleep.
