
PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY
YOU'RE WOBBLING.
HE'S STILL HOLDING ON.
Lord, You're patient with every wobble. Hold on until I ride.
Love is patient...

LEARNING TO RIDE

Learning anything new is wobbly. A new habit, a new way of praying, a fresh start after a fall. Some days you feel you're getting it; other days you feel you're back at the beginning, and you wonder how long God will be patient with you.

Paul writes, "Love is patient and is kind," and a few lines later says love "bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, and endures all things." That's how God loves you. Like a parent running beside a child's bicycle, He doesn't let go at the first wobble, and He doesn't give up when you fall.

Before you sleep, think of one area where you're still learning. Instead of judging yourself for the wobbles, thank God for His patience. Then rest, and try again tomorrow.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I keep wobbling and falling off. Thank You that Your love is patient. Run beside me tomorrow, and I'll ride again.
