PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

WAIT FOR HIM. YOU WILL RISE.

Lord, I'm waiting for You before I start. Renew me, and I'll rise.

"...those who wait for the LORD will renew their strength. They will mount up with wings like eagles. They will run, and not be weary. They will walk, and not faint."

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

WAIT FIRST, THEN RISE

Some mornings you wake up already behind. The list is loud before your feet touch the floor, and stopping for anything feels like losing ground.

Isaiah wrote to people who felt God had lost track of them, and his answer was not to try harder. It was to wait: “those who wait for the LORD will renew their strength” (Isaiah 40:31). Waiting here isn’t sitting idle. It’s leaning your whole weight toward Him and letting Him trade your tired strength for His. An eagle doesn’t climb by flapping harder. It opens its wings and lets the rising air carry it.

So before you look at anything else this morning, give Him two minutes. Sit somewhere still, put the phone face down, and tell Him what today holds. Then get up and start. You won’t be starting alone.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I'm already behind and itching to start. I'll sit still at the edge of this day first. Trade my tired strength for Yours, and let me fly.
