
PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY
EVERY GOOD THING
COMES DOWN FROM HIM.
Lord, let me catch every good gift You send.
“Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation nor turning shadow.”

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

GIFTS YOU ALMOST MISSED

By midday it's easy to run on autopilot. You move from one thing to the next, and the good parts slip past without a second look: the coffee someone made, the kind word that came at the right moment, the sun on the street.

James says every good gift comes down from above, from the Father of lights, and that He doesn't shift the way a shadow moves with the sun. The good in your day isn't luck, and it isn't random. It comes from someone steady and generous, on your best days and your hardest ones.

In the next hour, notice one good thing as it arrives. Then pass something on:

send the thank-you, buy someone a coffee, say the kind word you were about to keep to yourself. Gifts get easier to see once you start giving them.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I've been rushing past what You've been handing me. Open my hands this afternoon, and let me notice each good gift as it falls.
