PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

SCARED TO JUMP?
HE'S ALREADY CATCHING YOU.

Lord, I'm jumping. Abba, catch me.

"For you didn't receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!""

JUMP, HE'S IN THE WATER

It might be a phone call you keep putting off, a conversation you're dreading, or a decision you've circled all week. By the middle of the day, fear can be quietly steering everything, deciding what you start and what you leave for later.

Paul writes that you didn't receive a spirit that makes you a slave to fear all over again (Romans 8:15). You were adopted. The Spirit puts in your mouth the same word Jesus used with His Father: Abba, the family word you call out without thinking when you need someone. A child at the edge of the pool doesn't jump because the water is shallow. They jump because of who is in it.

Pick the one thing you've been afraid to begin this afternoon. You don't have to finish it, just start it. Send the first line, make the first call, open the file. Then say His name under your breath and jump.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I'm standing at the edge of the thing I've been dreading. Abba, You're already in the water. Here I come.
