PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

BEFORE ANYTHING ELSE, FATHER

Maybe "father" is an easy word for you. Maybe it's a hard one, tied to someone who left, someone you miss this morning, or someone you could never quite reach. Either way, you may be starting today feeling like you have to hold yourself up.

Jesus taught His friends to begin every prayer the same way: "Our Father in heaven" (Matthew 6:9). Not Almighty, not Judge, but Father, and ours. He isn't measured by the fathers we've had; they're measured by Him. And "our" means you never pray alone. This morning you're one voice among millions saying the same words.

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

Before you open anything else today, step outside for a minute. Say the first two words out loud, slowly: Our Father. Then think of one person you'd like to include in that "our", and carry them with you through the day.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I've been holding myself up too long. Father, here's my small hand in Your big one. Hold on and don't let go.
