PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

HIS NAME IS HOLY. START THERE.

Lord, I'm stopping before I start.
Let Your name be kept holy in all I do.

"...may your name be kept holy."

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

STOP BEFORE YOU START

It's Monday, and the week is pulling at you before you're properly awake: messages, deadlines, whatever didn't get finished on Friday. It's easy to start running before you've even looked up.

The first thing Jesus taught us to ask for has nothing to do with our list: "may your name be kept holy" (Matthew 6:9). In Scripture a name is the person, who He is and what He's like. To ask that His name be kept holy is to ask that He be seen as He really is, and that your life today would show it. Awe puts everything else back in proportion. The mountain doesn't make your week disappear. It reminds you who is bigger.

Before you open your inbox, stop for one full minute. Look out of a window or step outside, and say that line slowly. Then make your first task something you'd be glad to do in His name.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I'm standing at the edge of a big week. Before I take another step, show me how holy Your name is. Then I'll walk.
