PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

DON'T BE AFRAID.
HE KNOWS YOUR NAME.

Lord, it's late, and the dark still gets to me. The garage is empty and the house will be quiet, and I keep walking faster than I need to. But You've called me by name, and I'm Yours. You paid to bring me home. Go ahead of me, row by row, all the way to my door, and let me sleep.

"Don't be afraid, for I have redeemed you. I have called you by your name. You are mine."
