PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

WHERE HE REIGNS, WALLS COME DOWN.

Lord, tear down what stands between us, and fill this place with Your peace and joy.

"for God's Kingdom is not eating and drinking, but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit."

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

WHERE WALLS COME DOWN

By midday the small frictions pile up: the neighbour things are awkward with, the colleague you can't quite read, the family member you haven't really talked to in months. You may long for things to be different between you without knowing where to start.

Paul wrote to a church divided over food and drink and told them God's Kingdom is righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit (Romans 14:17). Righteousness is what was wrong being put right. Peace is strangers and rivals becoming neighbours again. Joy is what floods in when the wall finally falls. Paul says Christ Himself is our peace, the one who broke down the wall that divided us (Ephesians 2:14). Where He reigns, walls don't last.

Think of one person on the other side of a wall in your life. This afternoon, take down one plank: send a kind message, return a call, or say the word that makes peace.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, this fence has stood long enough. Pull it down with me, and let Your peace and joy flood in.
