PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

THE KING IS COMING

You may wake up wanting more than another ordinary day: more good in the world, more of God than you've seen so far. That isn't too much to ask. It's exactly what Jesus taught us to ask for.

"Let your Kingdom come" (Matthew 6:10) is the boldest line in the prayer. It asks the King of heaven to bring His rule to earth, over cities and nations, homes and hearts, until everything here is as it is in heaven. Scripture says that day is certain: one day the kingdom of the world will become the Kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ, and He will reign forever (Revelation 11:15). Every time you pray this line, you're asking for that day to come closer, and for it to begin in you.

Before you leave home, go to a window and pray this one line slowly over everything you can see. Then ask Him which part of your day He wants to rule first, and give Him that.
