PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

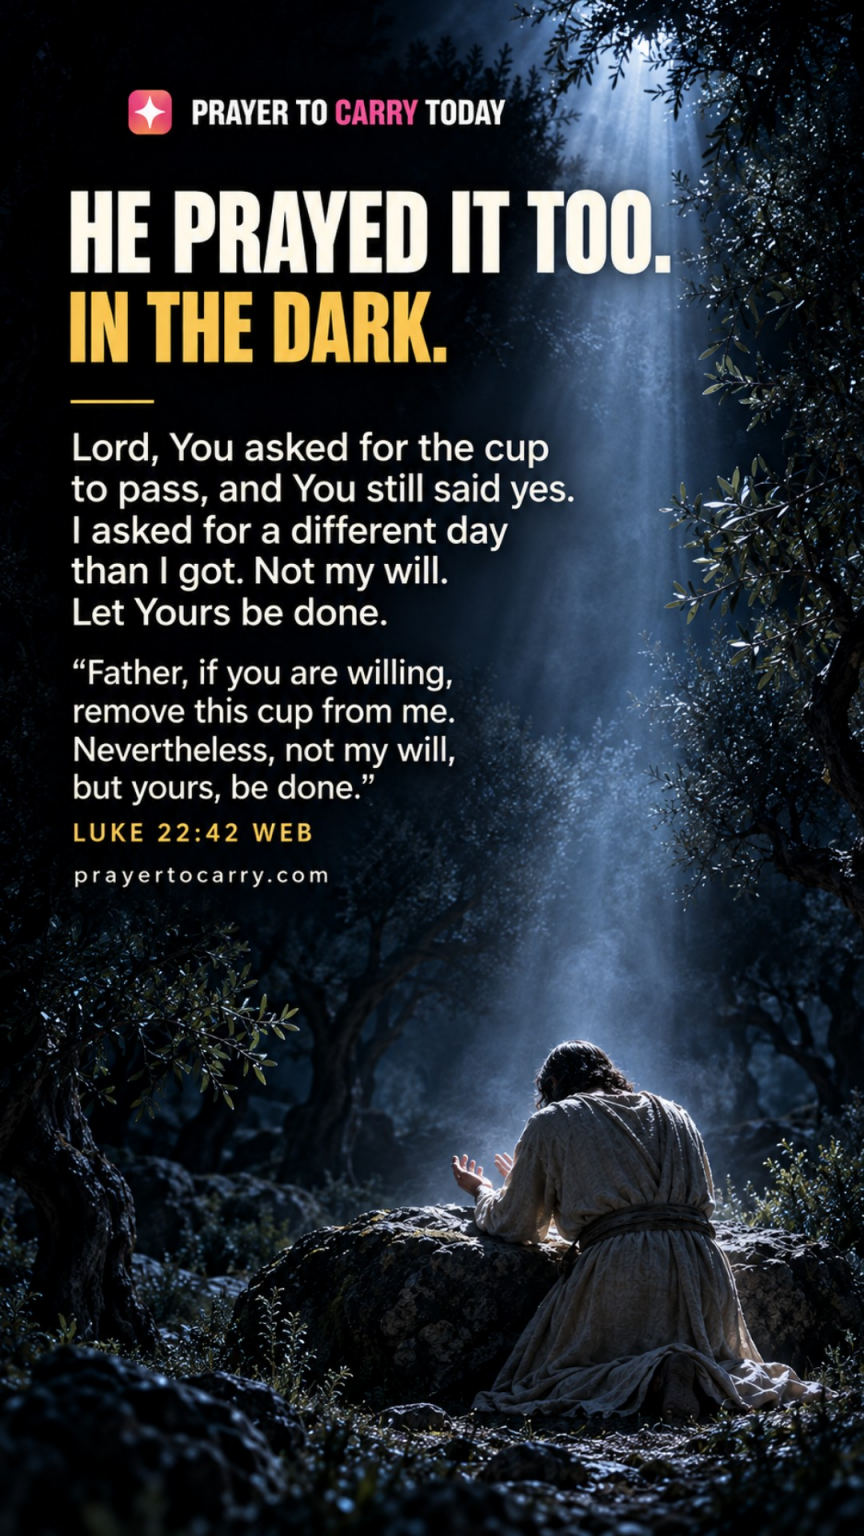

HE PRAYED IT TOO. IN THE DARK.

Lord, You asked for the cup to pass, and You still said yes. I asked for a different day than I got. Not my will. Let Yours be done.

"Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done."

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

ASKED, AND THEN YIELDED

Maybe today didn't go the way you asked. The answer was no, the plan fell through, or the conversation went badly. You prayed about it, and the day happened anyway. Disappointment like that can feel like failing at faith.

In the garden the night before the cross, Jesus prayed, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me" (Luke 22:42). He didn't hide what He wanted. He said it plainly, and then He said, "Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done." The next verse tells what happened: "An angel from heaven appeared to him, strengthening him." The cup wasn't taken away, but He wasn't left alone with it. Asking honestly and yielding are not opposites. He did both, and the Father met Him there.

Before you sleep, write one line about what you wanted today. Under it, write: Your will be done.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I wanted a different day, and I've told You so. Tonight, in the dark, I'm opening my hands. Be the strength I need to rest.
