PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

GATHERED LITTLE?
YOU LACK NOTHING.

Lord, I didn't have much in me today. You made it go round. No one at my table lacked.

"...he who gathered much had nothing over, and he who gathered little had no lack."

IT WENT ROUND

Some evenings you look back and count only what you didn't manage. Less done than you planned, less patience than you wanted, less of you to go round the people who needed you. It's easy to end the day feeling short.

In the wilderness, God gave Israel bread every morning, and everyone gathered what they could. Some came back with more, some with less. But when it was measured, “he who gathered much had nothing over, and he who gathered little had no lack” (Exodus 16:18). The measure was never their effort. It was His provision, and it was exactly enough.

Before you go to bed, think back over today and notice three places where it was quietly enough: a meal that stretched, a conversation that came at the right time, strength that lasted just as long as it was needed. Thank Him for each one.

EXODUS 16:18 (WEB)

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I end this day feeling I fell short. I gathered so little, and You still filled every bowl. Let me rest in what You gave.
