PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

CAN'T WASH IT OUT?
HE MAKES IT WHITE AS SNOW.

Lord, I'm coming as I am, red all the way through. I've scrubbed and it won't come out. Make me white as snow tonight, and let me sleep clean.

"Though your sins are as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow."

WHITE AS SNOW

Some things don't wash out. You've said sorry, you've tried to make it right, you've gone over it until you're worn through, and still it shows, as plain as a stain on a white shirt. Night is when it shows most.

God spoke to people who knew exactly how far they had gone wrong, and He didn't begin with a lecture. He began with an invitation: “Come now, and let’s reason together” (Isaiah 1:18). Then came the promise: “Though your sins are as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow.” You don't have to scrub yourself clean before you come. Coming is your part. Making you white is His.

Turn the lights off. Settle back with your hands open, say the verse to Him slowly, once, and let the snow fall.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I've tried and tried, and it still won't come out. Here I am, just as I am. Let Your snow fall on me while I sleep.
