PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

HE GUARDED YOU ALL THE WAY HOME.

Lord, You were beside me every step today, even when I didn't notice. You guarded me all the way home. Now set my feet firm in You.

"...the Lord is faithful, who will establish you and guard you from the evil one."

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

WALKED HOME

Some days you only just get through. By the time you're walking home, the day's weight is still on your shoulders: what went wrong, what was said, what nearly happened. It's easy to think you got through it on your own.

Paul knew how close evil can come. He had just asked his friends to pray that he would be delivered from evil men. Then he turned straight to them with a promise: “the Lord is faithful, who will establish you and guard you from the evil one” (2 Thessalonians 3:3). The guarding doesn't depend on you noticing it. He was faithful in the hours you were looking the other way, and He walked you to your own door.

Before you sleep, go back through today slowly. Find one moment when He was guarding you, and thank Him for it by name.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I made it home tonight, and I know who walked the street beside me. Stay close through the dark, and keep on guarding.
