PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

KEPT ON THE WAY OUT

Heading out the door can carry a quiet unease. Today holds things you can't see yet: a hard conversation, a long road, news you didn't ask for. You can plan, but you can't control what meets you.

Psalm 121 was sung by travellers on the road up to Jerusalem, and it promises: “The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in” (Psalm 121:8). On the night before the cross, Jesus prayed the same for His friends. He didn't ask God to take them out of the world, but “that you would keep them from the evil one” (John 17:15). You don't have to stay home to be safe. He keeps you on the way.

Before you leave, name the one place today where you most need Him to keep you, and say it to Him at the door.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I can't see what today's clouds are hiding. Carry me up through them, and keep me from all evil as I go.
