PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

ALREADY AT THE END

Some days you've barely started and you're already tired. The week, the job, the waiting: you can't see where it ends, and every step only seems to show more road.

John heard these words while he was exiled on an island, cut off for his faith in Jesus (Revelation 1:9). Before God showed him anything else, He told him who He is. He is the Alpha and the Omega. He is here now, He was there before this began, and He is coming from the far end of it. The Almighty isn't waiting for you to find your own way there. He's already on the road, coming toward you.

You don't have to plan the whole road this afternoon. Walk the next hour of it, then stop for a minute and notice who came with you.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I can't see the end of this road, and I'm already tired. You are the One who is to come. Walk toward me, and I'll keep walking.
