PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

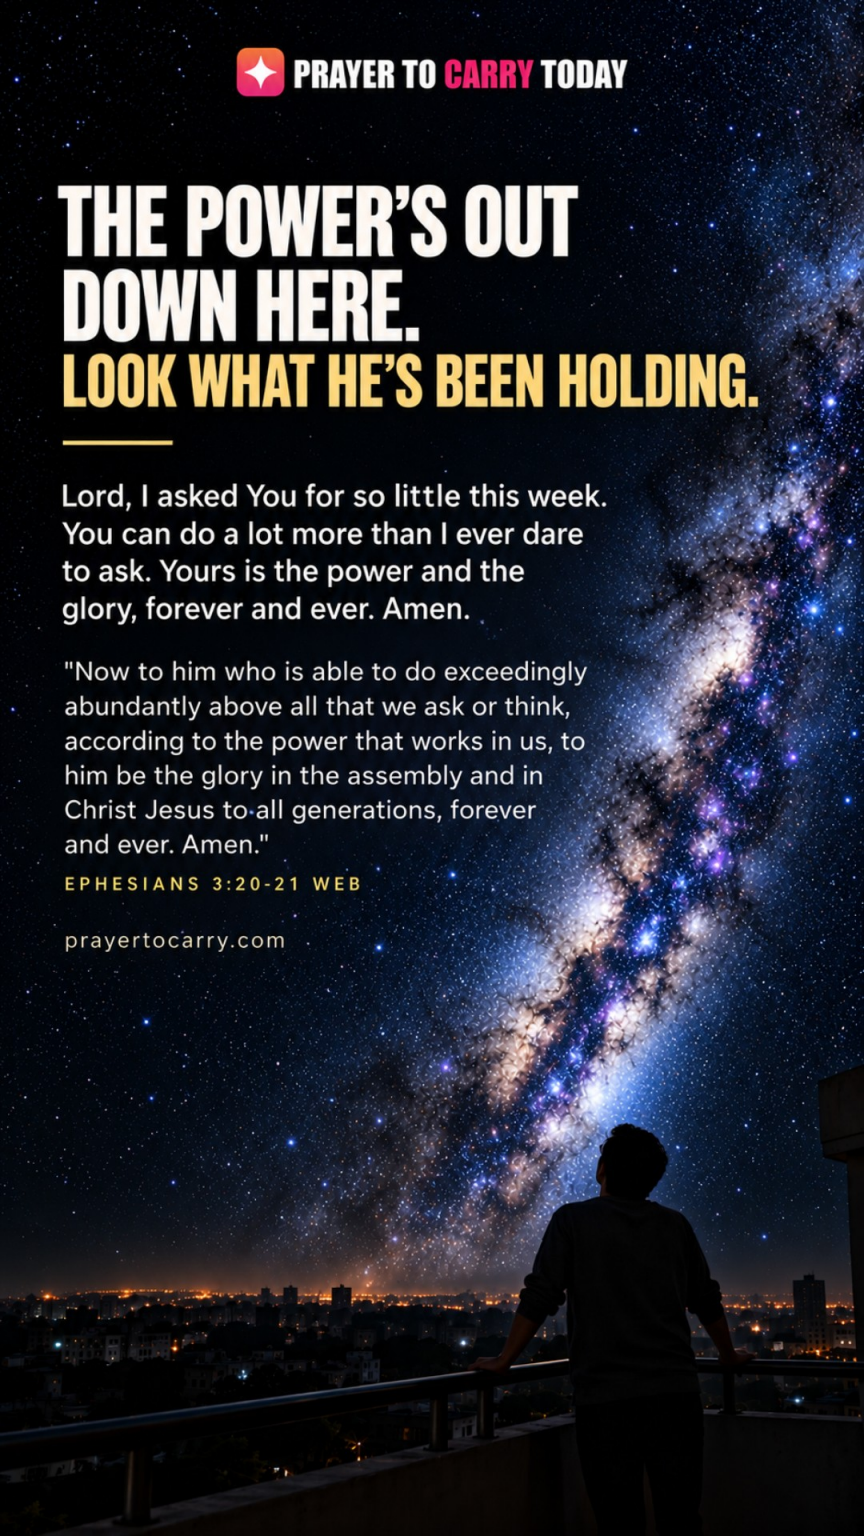

THE POWER'S OUT DOWN HERE.
LOOK WHAT HE'S BEEN HOLDING.

Lord, I asked You for so little this week. You can do a lot more than I ever dare to ask. Yours is the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

"Now to him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, to him be the glory in the assembly and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen."

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

MORE THAN YOU ASKED

Some nights your prayers feel small. You asked for so little this week, and you're not sure even that got through.

Paul wrote these words at the end of a prayer for a young church (Ephesians 3:14-19). He asked that they would know a love too wide to measure, and then he stopped asking and praised the One who can do far more than anything we ask or even imagine, by a power already at work in us. Our prayers don't set the limit of what God can do. For eight days we've prayed the prayer Jesus taught, line by line. It ends where Paul ends: the glory is His, forever.

Before you sleep, turn the lights off and pray the whole Lord's Prayer once, slowly. Let the Amen be the last thing you say tonight.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, my prayers felt small tonight, but the city went dark and the stars were all there. Do more than I ask, and let me sleep.
