PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

THE ROAD LEFT ITS DUST ON YOU.
HE KNEELS TO WASH IT OFF.

Lord, I wandered off Your way today, more than once. Here are my feet, dust and all. Wash them clean, and teach me again to walk.

"Teach me your way, LORD. I will walk in your truth. Make my heart undivided to fear your name."

DUST FROM THE ROAD

By evening you know how the day actually went. Maybe you snapped at someone you love, let the thing that mattered slide, or spent hours where your heart didn't want to be. The road you meant to walk this morning and the road you walked don't quite match, and the dust of it is still on you.

David promised, “I will walk in your truth,” in the same breath as asking God to teach him, which means he expected to need teaching again. God doesn't stand at the door checking how straight your path was. He kneels, the way Jesus knelt with a basin, and washes off what the road left on you.

Before you sleep, notice one moment today when you did walk in His truth, however small: a patient answer, an honest word, a kindness. Thank Him for it, and let Him wash away the rest.

SCRIPTURE

Teach me your way, LORD. I will walk in your truth. Make my heart undivided to fear your name.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, today didn't go the way I meant, but You kneel with water for my dusty feet. Wash them, and tomorrow I will walk.
