
PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY
HE WALKED TODAY
BEFORE YOU DID.
Lord, teach me Your way.
I'll put my feet where You've walked.
“Teach me your way, LORD.
I will walk in your truth.
Make my heart undivided to fear your name.”

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

FOOTPRINTS ALREADY THERE

A new day can feel like a field nobody has crossed yet. You don't know what this morning will ask of you, which conversation will turn hard, or where the afternoon will take you, and that not-knowing can sit heavy before you've even left the house.

David didn't ask God for a map of the whole day. He asked, “Teach me your way, LORD,” and then promised to walk. The way he asked for isn't a route you have to work out alone. It belongs to Someone who has already been through every hour ahead of you. You don't go first. You follow.

Before you head out, choose one thing you'll do His way today: a kind word where you'd usually be short, an honest answer, ten minutes given to someone who needs them. Hold on to that one thing, and take the first step.

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I don't know what today holds, but Your footprints are already in the snow. Show me the first one, and I will walk.
