PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

IT WASN'T FAIR.
HE'S TAKING IT FROM HERE.

Lord, I can't make today right.
Your throne stands on justice.
Here, take it. I'm going to sleep.

"Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne. Loving kindness and truth go before your face."

HE TAKES THE SEAT

Something happened today that wasn't fair. Maybe someone took the credit, or said something about you that wasn't true, or got away with it while you paid for it. Now it's late, and you're still running the argument, the one where you finally say what you should have said.

Psalm 89:14 says God's throne stands on righteousness and justice. He isn't a judge who missed the hearing; He saw all of it. And the same verse says loving kindness and truth go ahead of Him, so His justice doesn't come at you as a threat. When Jesus was wronged, Peter writes, He didn't strike back. He left it with the One who judges righteously (1 Peter 2:23). You can do the same tonight.

Tell God plainly what happened and who was involved. Ask Him to judge it rightly. Then turn off the light and leave the case with Him.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I keep replaying what happened, and I can't settle it. I'm pushing the whole stack across to You. You judge with justice, so I can rest.
