PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

HE SAID HE'D COME

The middle of the day can be lonely even in a busy place. You eat at your desk or at a counter on your own, half the day behind you, half still ahead, and nobody asks how it's going.

David prayed these words after God made him a promise far bigger than anything he had asked for: you are God, and your words are truth. What God says, happens. God kept that promise in Jesus, and Jesus made one of His own before He left: “Behold, I am with you always, even to the end of the age” (Matthew 28:20). He doesn't send His word from far away. He keeps it in person, and He sits down beside you.

Before you go back to work, take two minutes where you are. Tell Him plainly how the morning went, the way you would tell a friend who just pulled up a seat.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I'm sitting alone in the middle of this day. You said You'd be with me, and Your words are truth. Stay beside me while I work.
