PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

THEIR NAMES BEFORE YOU SLEEP

The lights are off, but your mind is still walking the hallway. The people you love are behind those doors, or across town, or across the world, and you are carrying all of them: their health, their choices, whatever tomorrow might bring.

David's prayer ended in the same place, with his family. God had promised to bless his house, and David simply asked Him to do it: “Let the house of your servant be blessed forever with your blessing” (2 Samuel 7:29). He didn't try to hold them all up himself. He handed them to the One who had already spoken. Blessing the people you love isn't a burden God puts up with. It pleases Him.

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

Before you sleep, say each of their names, one at a time, and ask God to bless them. If someone lives far away, picture their front door. Then put them in His hands and close your eyes.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I can't stop worrying about the people behind these doors. You love to bless them. Let Your blessing rest on every room, and let me sleep.
