
PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY
WATCHED SOMEONE CUT AHEAD?
YOU CAN REST IN HIM.
Lord, I watched them get ahead today, and it stung. I'm loosening my grip. I can wait.
"Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him. Don't fret because of him who prospers in his way, because of the man who makes wicked plots happen."
PSALMS 37:7 WEB
prayertocarry.com

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

WHEN THE SHORTCUT PAYS OFF

Some days you watch someone get ahead the wrong way. They cut the corner, bent the truth or took the credit, and it worked. You did it right, and you're still sitting at the red light. That sting can follow you all the way home.

Psalm 37:7 doesn't ask you to pretend it didn't happen. It asks you to rest in the LORD and wait for Him, and not to let fretting over someone else's success settle in your chest. David had seen this many times. He had also seen that God's timing is patient, not absent. You don't have to keep score tonight. He is watching over all of it.

Before the evening goes on, notice where you fretted today. Tell God plainly what stung. Then open your hands and leave it with Him.

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

SCRIPTURE

Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him. Don't fret because of him who prospers in his way, because of the man who makes wicked plots happen.

PSALMS 37:7 (WEB)

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I've been gripping the wheel over someone else's win. Here's my open hand. Teach me to rest in You and wait.