PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

DELIGHT IN HIM FIRST.

HE'LL GIVE YOUR HEART WHAT IT WANTS.

Lord, I'm running to You first.
Give my heart what it wants.

"...delight yourself in the LORD,
and he will give you the desires of your heart."

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

DELIGHT COMES BEFORE THE WANTING

Maybe you woke up already wanting things: a reply, a break, a door to open, something you've hoped for so long you're almost afraid to want it anymore. It's easy to start the day chasing those wants and fit God in somewhere between them.

David wrote Psalm 37 as an old man who had watched a lot of wanting play out. His order is gentle and deliberate. Delight in the LORD first, and the desires of your heart are safe with Him. Delight here means enjoying Him, not managing Him. As you take pleasure in who He is, your heart's requests start to sound more like His, and He is glad to give.

Before you check anything this morning, write down one thing your heart wants. Underneath it, write one thing you love about God. Then hand both to Him.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, my arms are open to You this morning, wants and all. Be my first joy today, and let my heart want what You give.
