PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

HE TURNS TO YOU LIKE HE ALWAYS DOES.

Lord, I fell behind again today. Turn to me. Have mercy, like You always do.

"Turn to me, and have mercy on me, as you always do to those who love your name."

PSALMS 119:132 WEB

prayertocarry.com

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

MERCY AS USUAL

Maybe today you fell behind: behind on work, behind on patience, behind the person you meant to be by tonight. It's easy to picture God somewhere up ahead, tired of waiting for you.

Psalm 119:132 asks Him to turn and have mercy, and it says He does this as He always does for those who love His name. Mercy isn't His exception for good days. It's His habit. He doesn't keep walking when you lag behind. He turns around.

Before the evening gets away, look back over the day and find one place He met you in it: a kind word, a door that opened, a moment you handled better than you expected. Name it to Him. That's the same mercy, showing up again.

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

SCRIPTURE

Turn to me, and have mercy on me, as you always do to those who love your name.

PSALMS 119:132 (WEB)

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I lagged behind You all day. Thank You for turning around for me. Keep showing me the mercy You always show.

