LOST HEART TODAY?
HE'S GIVING IT BACK.

Lord, I lost heart somewhere today. Thank You for staying with me. Give me courage to walk in.

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

COURAGE FOR THE FRONT DOOR

Some days take something out of you, and you only notice when you stop. You pull in, turn off the engine and sit there a while, because you don't have it in you to walk in yet.

Psalm 27:14 says let your heart take courage, and those words can also be read as a promise: He strengthens your heart. The verse just before it gives David's reason: “I will see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.” Not someday, but here, on an ordinary evening. Whatever today took from you, He is giving your heart back.

Before you go in, name one good thing you saw today, however small: a kind word, a laugh, a job finished. Say it out loud, then open the door.
