PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

CAN'T SEE THE WAY YET? HE'S CLEARING IT.

Lord, I'm in a fog about today. I'll wait for You to clear it.

"Wait for the LORD. Be strong, and let your heart take courage. Yes, wait for the LORD."

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

WAITING IS LEANING FORWARD

Some mornings start without a map. A decision is still open, an answer hasn't come, and you can't see past the first hour of the day. It can feel like sitting still while everyone else moves.

Psalm 27:14 is David talking to his own heart before the answer came. The Hebrew word for wait carries the sense of a cord pulled taut: not giving up, but leaning toward the LORD and expecting Him. You don't need to see the whole way this morning. He sees it, and He is already clearing it.

Before you open your messages, write the one thing you're waiting on at the top of today's list. Leave it there and get on with the day. Each time you notice it, let it remind you who you're waiting for.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I can't see the far shore yet. I'm picking up the paddle and waiting for You. Strengthen me while the fog lifts.
