PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

TODAY WAS TOO HEAVY. HE'S CARRYING IT.

Lord, I couldn't carry today the way I meant to. I dropped what mattered and held on to what I should have let go. You laid down Your life with all of this already on Your shoulders. So I'm setting today down in front of You. Tonight, I'm letting You carry.

"Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends."

JOHN 15:13 WEB

prayertocarry.com

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

CARRIED, NOT DROPPED

Maybe today got away from you. You meant to show up well, and somewhere along the way you dropped things that mattered. Now the evening is quiet enough to feel the weight of all of it.

Jesus spoke about laying down His life for His friends at a table full of people who were about to let Him down. Within hours one would deny knowing Him and the rest would scatter. He went to the cross anyway, carrying the weight for them, and for you. Love that great doesn't wait for a good day before it picks up the load. It carried tonight's weight before you ever felt it.

Before you close the day, take a scrap of paper and write down the heaviest thing from today in a few words. Then fold it, set it down, and tell Him you're leaving it with Him.

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

SCRIPTURE

Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends.

JOHN 15:13 (WEB)

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I'm feeling everything I dropped today. You carried that beam up the hill for Your friends, and I'm one of them. Take this weight off my shoulders; I'm letting go.

PRAYERTOCARRY.COM

