PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

SOMEONE LOVED YOU TODAY. THAT'S THE GREATEST THING.

Lord, I measured today by what I got done, and it came up short. But someone slid a bowl across to me. That was love, and it came from You. Make me the one who passes it on.

"But now faith, hope, and love remain—these three. The greatest of these is love."

MEASURED BY LOVE

At the end of the day it's easy to grade yourself. The list you didn't finish, the reply you didn't send, the version of today you meant to have.

Paul ends his great chapter on love by naming what lasts, and he puts love at the top: “The greatest of these is love.” Not the most done, not the most known. Love. And love was in your day, even if it came quietly: someone who asked how you were, who made you food, who stayed and talked. That was God's love reaching you through a person.

Before bed, think of one person who loved you today in some small way. Send them a short thank-you, or tell them tomorrow.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I kept score of today and lost. Thank You for the love at my table I almost missed. Teach me to give it back.
