PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

EVERYTHING ELSE CAN FADE. LOVE KEEPS HOLDING ON.

Lord, when everything else slips, let love be the grip that stays.

"But now faith, hope, and love remain—these three. The greatest of these is love."

THE GRIP THAT STAYS

Maybe you're in the middle of watching something slip. A grandparent who forgets a little more each visit, a friendship thinning out, your own energy running down before the afternoon is over. It can feel like everything you count on is loosening its hold.

Paul wrote that almost everything we rely on will fade, even knowledge, even the gifts people were proudest of. What remains is faith, hope and love, and the greatest is love. When memory and strength go, love is still there, still holding on. God's love holds you the same way, and it gives you the strength to hold others.

Sometime this afternoon, reach out to someone whose grip on things is slipping. A short call, a visit, or a message that says you're still here.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, so much is slipping out of my hands right now. Hold me the way You hold everyone I love, and keep my love from letting go.
