PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

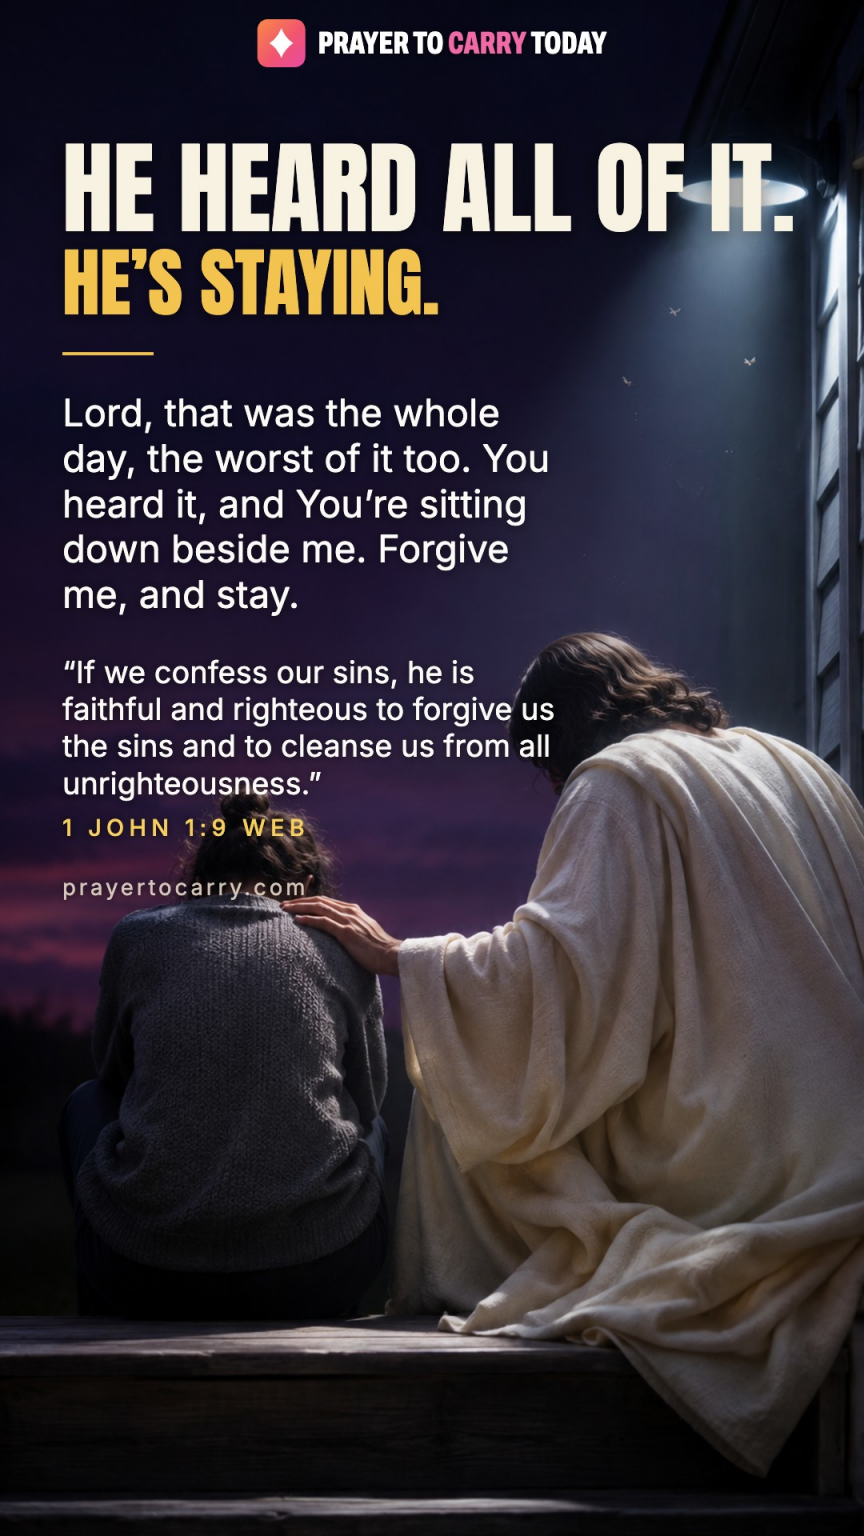

HE HEARD ALL OF IT. HE'S STAYING.

Lord, that was the whole day, the worst of it too. You heard it, and You're sitting down beside me. Forgive me, and stay.

"If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us the sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

HE DOESN'T LEAVE THE STEP

Evenings have a way of adding up the day for you. The good parts go quiet, and the moments you'd rather forget get loud: the tone you used, the thing you avoided, what you felt when nobody was looking. It's easy to brace yourself before you even start to pray.

But confessing to God isn't handing a report to someone deciding whether to walk out. John says he writes so that we won't sin, and then straight away: “If anyone sins, we have a Counsellor with the Father, Jesus Christ, the righteous.” Jesus isn't across the table from you. He's on your side. So He hears all of it and stays, faithful to forgive and righteous in doing it.

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

Before the evening slips away, sit for a minute and tell God one thing from today plainly. Then thank Him for one good thing that happened. Both belong to the day, and He was there for both.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I've been wincing at today. You know every hour of it, and You're still here on the step with me. Forgive what I told You, and let me rest.
