PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

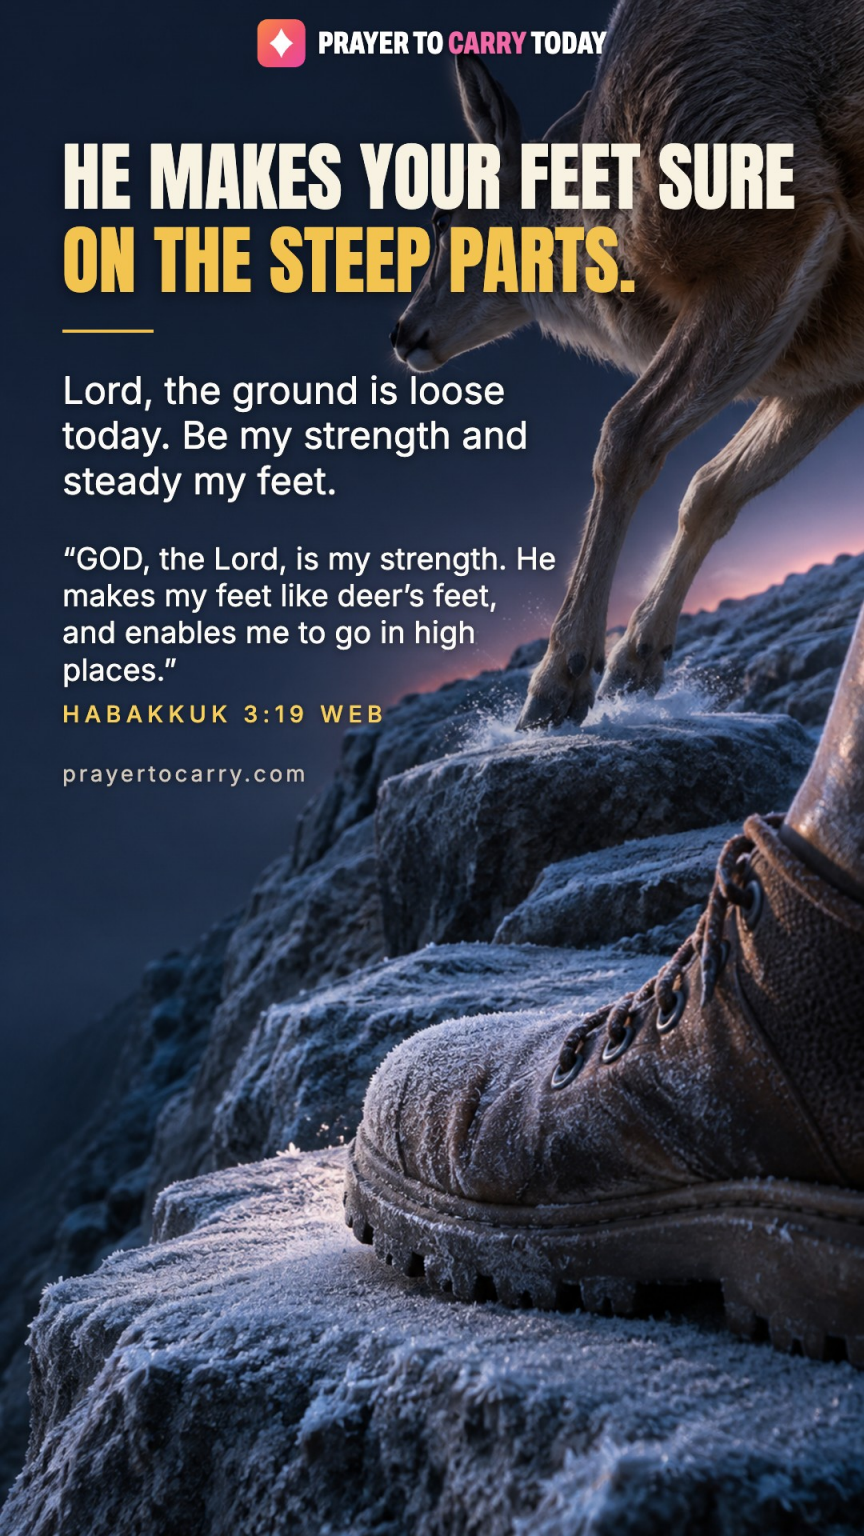

HE MAKES YOUR FEET SURE ON THE STEEP PARTS.

Lord, the ground is loose today. Be my strength and steady my feet.

"GOD, the Lord, is my strength. He makes my feet like deer's feet, and enables me to go in high places."

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

FOOTING FOR THE STEEP PARTS

Some days you can see the steep part coming: the exam, the shift, the conversation you've been putting off. You haven't even started, and your legs already feel shaky.

Habakkuk wrote this line after listing everything that had failed him: no figs, no harvest, empty stalls. He didn't say the climb got easier. He said God was his strength, and that God gives feet like a deer's, the kind that land sure on ground that's sliding. The promise isn't a flatter road. It's footing on the steep one, and a way up to places you couldn't reach on your own.

Before anything else pulls at you this morning, name the steepest hour on today's schedule. Say it to God out loud, by name, and ask Him to be your strength there. Then go and take the first step.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I'm shaky before the day has even started. You are my strength. Give me feet like a deer's on every slope, and lead me up.
