PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

HE'S GLAD YOU ASKED.
HE GIVES WISDOM FREELY.

Lord, guide my hands. Give the wisdom I lack.

"But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him."

JAMES 1:5 WEB

prayertocarry.com

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

ASK WITHOUT THE SHAME

Halfway through the day, a decision lands on you and you don't know what to do. Maybe you feel you should already know. Asking can feel like admitting you're behind.

James writes to people in exactly that spot: if you lack wisdom, ask God. Then he describes the kind of giver God is. He gives to everyone, generously, and without reproach: no sigh, no lecture, no “you should have known.” When Solomon asked for wisdom, the request pleased Him. The one thing James asks of you is to ask trusting Him, not with one foot already out the door.

Before you go back to it, stop for one minute. Tell Him plainly what you're stuck on, and that you want His wisdom, not just a way out. Then take the next small step you can actually see, and trust Him for the one after that.

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

SCRIPTURE

But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him.

JAMES 1:5 (WEB)

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I'm stuck halfway and I don't know the next stroke. You're never impatient with me. I'm asking You for wisdom; show me, and I'll keep working.