PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

PICKED LAST FOR EVERYTHING? HE PICKED YOU FIRST.

Lord, You picked me before I ever chose You. Send me out today to bear fruit that lasts.

"You didn't choose me, but I chose you and appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain."

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

PICKED BEFORE YOU SHOWED UP

Maybe you know the feeling of standing by the wall while the names get called. Passed over at work, left out of the plans, wondering if anyone would notice if you weren't there. It's easy to walk into a new day already braced to be overlooked.

Jesus said these words to a handful of ordinary people the night before everything fell apart. He didn't tell them they had finally earned their place. He told them He had chosen them first, and that He was sending them out to grow something that would last. You don't have to earn your way in today. You start this morning already picked.

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

So spend some of this morning on someone else. Before noon, do one small thing that leaves something good behind for a person who might feel overlooked too: a message, a coffee, a real question about how they are.

SCRIPTURE

You didn't choose me, but I chose you and appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain.

JOHN 15:16 (WEB)

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, when I feel passed over, let Your light find me on the branch. Grow fruit in me today that someone else can taste.
