PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

YOUR FATHER FORGIVES YOU. BREAKFAST IS READY.

Lord, I let You down, and You still lit the fire. Now I forgive.

"For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you."

MATTHEW 6:14 WEB

prayertocarry.com

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

BREAKFAST ON THE SHORE

You wake up and it's already there: the conversation that went wrong, the person you haven't spoken to since. Part of you expects to be kept at arm's length today, by them, and maybe by God.

After Peter denied Jesus three times, Jesus didn't wait for an apology. He was on the shore at dawn with a fire going and fish on the coals, calling, “Come and eat breakfast!” (John 21:12). That is how your Father forgives: He gets there first and has everything ready. Right after the prayer He taught, Jesus said where that forgiveness goes next (Matthew 6:14). It doesn't stop with you. Forgiving others is how you live inside it.

Before noon, carry that welcome to one person who let you down: a kind word, or a short message. You don't have to settle everything today. Just go first, the way He did.

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

SCRIPTURE

For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

MATTHEW 6:14 (WEB)

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I woke up still carrying it. You met me on the shore with the fire already lit. Help me forgive the way You forgive.

PRAYERTOCARRY.COM

