PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

HEARD A LOT OF NOISE ABOUT GOD?

HE IS LOVE.

Lord, under all the noise, I want to hear You. Let Your love speak.

"If I speak with the languages of men and of angels, but don't have love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal."

NOT NOISE. LOVE

Maybe you've heard a lot about God already. Loud opinions, big words, people who sounded sure of everything. Some of it felt like it had nothing to do with you, and some of it just felt like noise.

Paul would understand. He wrote this line to a church that loved impressive speech, and he turned it on himself first: if I had every language on earth and in heaven but no love, I'd be a clanging cymbal. The loudest voice is not the truest one. John puts it in three words: “God is love” (1 John 4:16). Underneath all the noise, that is who you are meeting.

So start there today. Before you say anything important, do one kind thing for someone, quietly, with no announcement. Hold a door, carry a bag, send the thank-you you've been putting off. Let love go first, and let the words come after.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, in every crowd and on every crossing today, let me feel Your hand on my shoulder. Let love go ahead of anything I speak.
