PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

SOMETHING TORE TODAY.

HE'S MENDING IT.

Lord, I was short with people today, and something tore. Mend it, and make me kind enough to help You mend.

"He who follows after righteousness and kindness finds life, righteousness, and honour."

WHAT TORE CAN BE MENDED

Some days fray at the edges. A sharp word, a message you wish you'd worded differently, a moment someone hurt you or you hurt them. By evening you can feel exactly where something tore.

The kindness Proverbs 21:21 tells you to chase is God's before it's yours. It's His loyal, stubborn love, and it doesn't wait for you to get the day right. He doesn't throw away what's torn. He mends it, stitch by stitch, and He makes you someone who can help mend it with Him. Forgiveness is what that kindness looks like on a hard day.

Before you sleep, write down two things: one place something tore today, and one kindness that met you anyway. Be honest, and be gentle with yourself. Then hand both to Him.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, You see the tear in my sleeve and the one in my day. Pull Your kindness through both like thread, and keep me still while You stitch.
