PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

SHADE FOR THE LONG AFTERNOON

Midday can be the hardest stretch. The morning's energy is spent, the afternoon still stretches ahead, and whatever you're carrying has had hours to get heavy. It's easy to measure your whole life by how this one afternoon feels.

The psalm sets a different scale. God's favour isn't for a moment, or a good week, or the days you get things right. It's for a lifetime. Isaiah hears Him promise to carry His people from birth to grey hair. The hours ahead of you sit inside that, the way a tired worker steps into the shade of a tree that stood long before they were born and will stand long after.

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

So step out of the glare for two minutes this afternoon, into real shade or a quiet corner. Breathe, and name one good thing that has already come your way today. That's His favour, in the middle of an ordinary day.

SCRIPTURE

His favour is for a lifetime.

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I'm tired and there's still so much to do. Let Your favour shade me through every hour that's left.
