PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

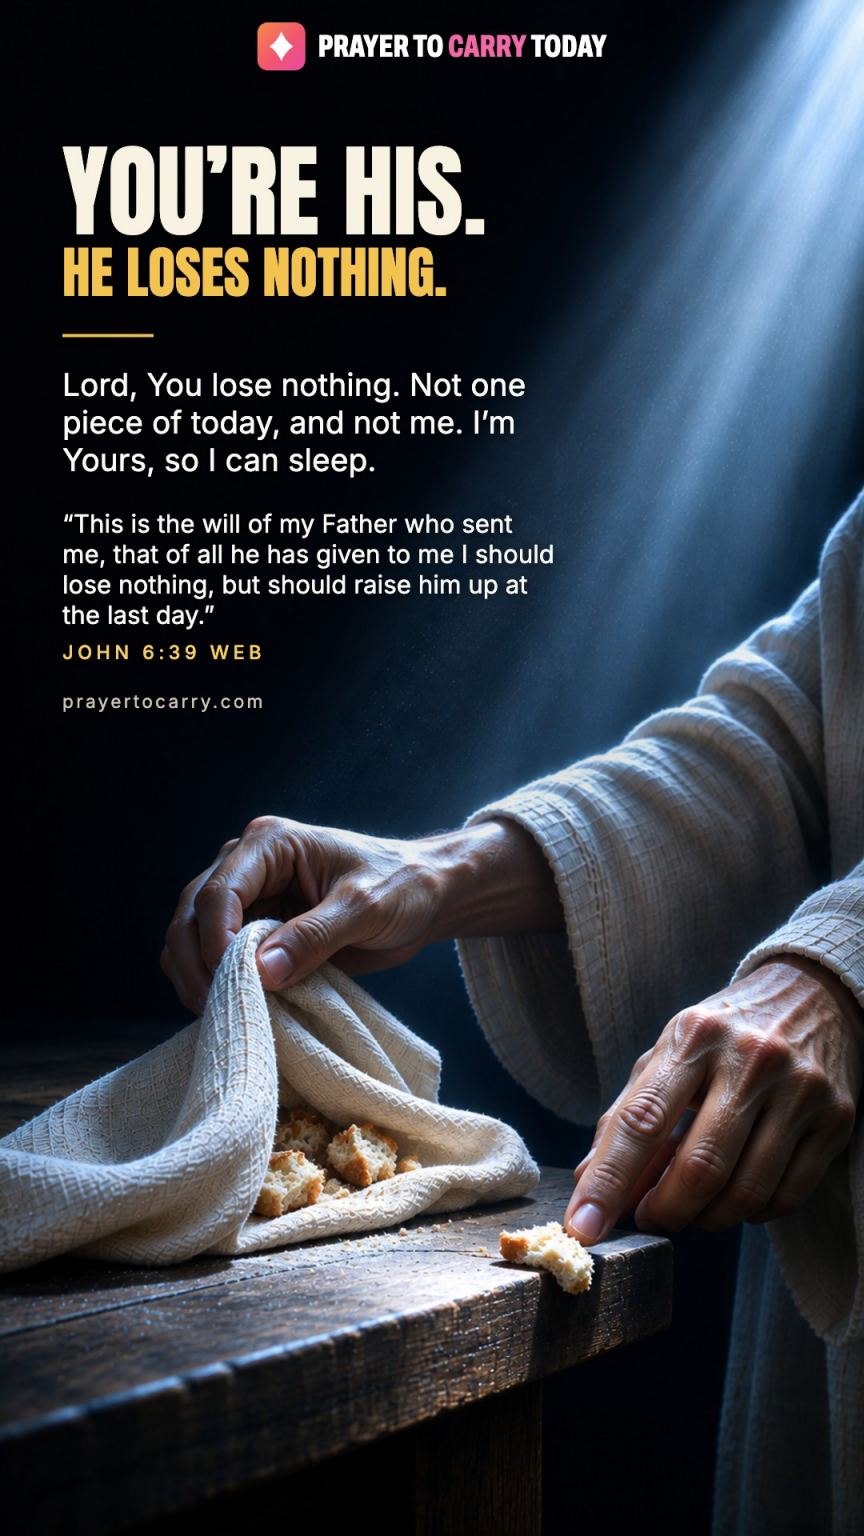

YOU'RE HIS.
HE LOSES NOTHING.

Lord, You lose nothing. Not one piece of today, and not me. I'm Yours, so I can sleep.

"This is the will of my Father who sent me, that of all he has given to me I should lose nothing, but should raise him up at the last day."

NOT ONE PIECE LOST

Night is when the day replays. The conversation you fumbled, the thing you forgot, the hours that seemed to slip through your fingers. Lying in the dark, it can feel as if pieces of you went missing somewhere along the way.

Earlier that same day, after five thousand people had eaten, Jesus told His disciples to gather up what was left over, “that nothing be lost” (John 6:12). Then He told the crowd this was His Father's will for people too: of all He has been given, He loses nothing, and He will raise them up at the last day. If you belong to Him, you are not something He misplaces. Not tonight, and not at the end.

Before you sleep, name one thing from today out loud that you've been turning over. Hand it to Him in a sentence, then turn off the light and let Him keep it.

SCRIPTURE

This is the will of my Father who sent me, that of all he has given to me I should lose nothing, but should raise him up at the last day.

JOHN 6:39 (WEB)

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, so much of today slipped through my fingers. Not one crumb slips through Yours. Keep me with all You've been given, and raise me up.
