PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

STILL HEARING THE ACCUSATIONS?

HE DOESN'T CONDEMN YOU.

Lord, everyone else has walked away, and You're still here. You don't condemn me. From now on, keep me from what I'm leaving.

"She said, "No one, Lord." Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go your way. From now on, sin no more.""

WHERE THE STONES FELL

Evenings can turn into a trial. You replay the day: the comment you shouldn't have made, the thing you let slide, what someone said about you, what you keep saying to yourself. By bedtime you've heard every verdict, and none of them are kind.

In John 8 a woman is dragged before Jesus by men ready to stone her. He stoops, speaks once, and one by one they leave. When it's just the two of them, He asks where her accusers went, and then says, “Neither do I condemn you. Go your way. From now on, sin no more.” He doesn't pretend nothing happened. He refuses to be one more voice of condemnation, and then He sends her into something new.

Before you sleep, name the one thing you're walking away from tonight. Say it plainly to Jesus, and ask Him to help you leave it behind tomorrow.
