PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

STUCK SOMEWHERE DARK TODAY?

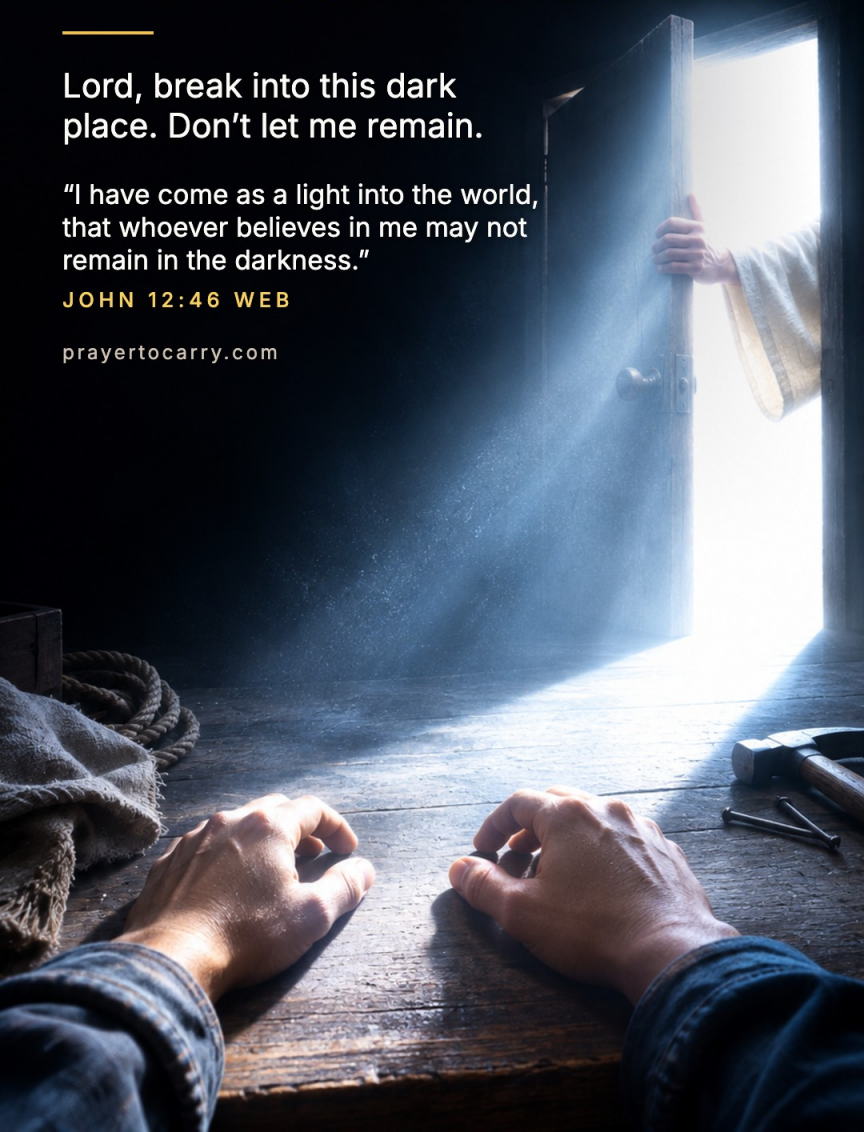

HE CAME SO YOU WON'T STAY THERE.

Lord, break into this dark place. Don't let me remain.

"I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in the darkness."

JOHN 12:46 WEB

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

WHEN THE DOOR OPENS

By the middle of some days you feel shut in. Not by walls, but by a job that's going nowhere, a worry you can't put down, a situation with no obvious way out. The light hasn't reached where you're sitting, and you've started to assume it won't.

Jesus cried these words out near the end of His public teaching: He came into the world as light so that whoever believes in Him may not remain in the darkness. He doesn't wait for you to find the door. He comes to it. The dark may be real today, but it is not where you're meant to stay.

Sometime this afternoon, step outside into daylight for five minutes. Stand where the light is, tell Jesus plainly where you feel stuck, and ask Him to show you one way out.

SCRIPTURE

I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in the darkness.

JOHN 12:46 (WEB)

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, I've been sitting in this dark room all morning. You shoved the door open. Help me believe it, and walk out.
