PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

HOWEVER DARK IT GETS TONIGHT

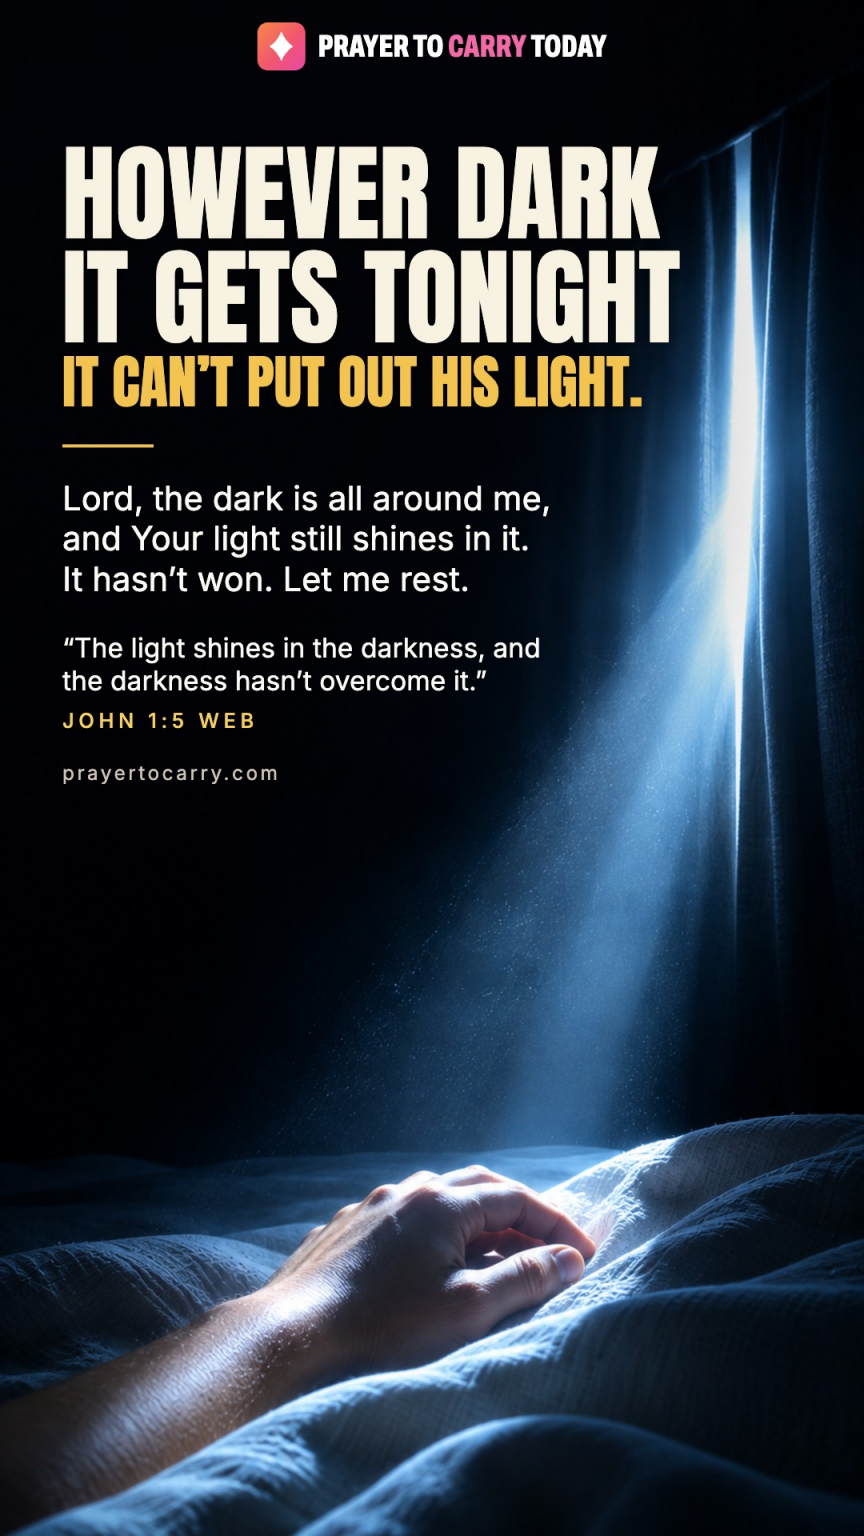

IT CAN'T PUT OUT HIS LIGHT.

Lord, the dark is all around me,
and Your light still shines in it.
It hasn't won. Let me rest.

"The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness hasn't overcome it."

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

THE DARK HASN'T WON

Night has a way of making everything bigger. The bill, the test result, the argument, the future: at noon they were problems, and at two in the morning they feel like verdicts. Lying in the dark, it's easy to believe the dark is winning.

John opens his Gospel with a sentence that refuses that conclusion. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness hasn't overcome it. He isn't pretending there is no dark; he sets the light right in the middle of it. The Word through whom everything was made came into this world, and nothing since has been able to put Him out.

Before you sleep tonight, open the curtain a crack or look at one light outside. Say John 1:5 once, slowly, and let it be the last thing you hear yourself say.

PRAYER TO CARRY TODAY

SCRIPTURE

The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness hasn’t overcome it.

JOHN 1:5 (WEB)

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, the room is dark, but Your light lies across my hand. The darkness hasn't overcome it. I can let go.
